Regimental Flag RUBRIC

CATEGORY	Mastered (5)	Proficient (3)	Progressing (1)
Integration of Knowledge	The regimental flag demonstrates the student fully understands and has applied concepts of unit History of the U.S. Colored Troops in the Civil War.. Concepts are integrated into student's own insights. Student clearly demonstrates an understanding of the importance of the practice of freedom through engagement.	The student demonstrates, for the most part, that they understand and have applied concepts learned in Lesson. Some of the conclusions, however, are not supported in the body of the journal entry. There is some representation or connection to Citizenship and freedom.	The assignment does not demonstrate that the student has fully understood and/or applied concepts learned in the unit. There is a minor connection of citizenship and freedom in the student's regimental flag.
Regimental Flag Focus and Depth of Discussion	The regimental flag has a connecting thread through the examples presented of the student's history. The written journal entry provides direction and clarification of flags. In-depth discussion and elaboration is witnessed in complex iconic representations.	The student tries to connect the examples presented on the regimental flag. The iconic representations are somewhat focused but lack direction. More examples may be needed to fully explore the topic.	The student contributed limited examples to express their knowledge of history discussed in the lesson. The representations in the flag are too broad for the assignment and/or do not connect to the overall assignment.
Visual Components	The student helped to make the regimental flag visually compelling and powerful. No words or letters were present on the flag. Colors were strong and compelling.	The student helped to make the regimental flag interesting and some components provided some depth to written narrative. Colors could be more forceful.	There were missing visual components. Components were not clear. Too many icons and colors were present in this representation.
